

Mad Studies Group Notes

Thursday 2 May 2019, 5pm – 6.30pm

@ Room 412, Pritchatts Road, Uni of Birmingham

Attendees: 10: 7 (+ 3 (Zoom))

Papers Considered:

We had a gender split in our attendance – six male attendees joined the group and three female attendees joined via Zoom video conferencing.

'A Call For Social Justice', BME Survivor Manifesto - Kindred Spirit

David Gibbs presented a synopsis on this, which has been added to the Mad Studies blog. See below for information on the paper.

Madness and the Demand for Recognition – Mohammed Abouelleil Rashed (Pages 3-17):

Group facilitator Tamar Jeynes provided a synopsis for the group which will be added to the Mad Studies blog:

Mad Studies Blog: www.pinkskythinking.com/blog

PST YouTube Vlog: <https://youtu.be/Kj5dco4RUkw>

Next Meeting: Thursday 6 June, 5pm – 6.30pm @ Room 412, 4th floor, 52 Pritchatts Road, University of Birmingham, Birmingham, B15 2SA

Papers for consideration:

The Case of The Peer Support Worker – Jijian Voronka:

<https://www.nsun.org.uk/Handlers/Download.ashx?IDMF=e4a17b4c-04bb-49c0-9493-68fe2e188725>

Madness and the Demand for Recognition – Mohammed Abouelleil Rashed (Chapter 1, pages 17-27): Please contact tamar@pinkskythinking.com if you need to find out where you can access this reading material.